SENATE MAY OUST DENBY FROM THE CABINET

IMPEACHMENT OF NAVY SECRETARY BEING TAKEN UP

ers farm relief.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Impeachment was being considered today as the next step in the senate's efforts to oust Secretary of the Navy Denby from the cabinet because of his connection with the naval oil leases.

The senate late yesterday by a vote of 47 to 34 called on President Coolidge to demand that Denby resign.

Four hours later Mr. Coolidge in a statement defied the upper house and refused emphatically to pay any attention to the senate demands.

He said the senate had no right to make it. Denby himself had nothing to say when he was told that the senate may impeach him, but previously had stated he would not resign. The best legal minds in the house and senate will now consider whether impeachment proceedings against Denby would be likely to succeed. If there is a possibility that Denby would beat the impeachment court, the action probably will not be taken.

Meanwhile there was tremendous indignation in the senate against Mr. Coolidge for his refusal to heed the demands couched in the Robinson resolution.

NOT ENOUGH VOTES TO OUST DENBY

Washington, Feb. 12.—Impeachment of Secretary of the Navy Denby at this time is unlikely because of inability to get a two-thirds vote of the senate to oust him.

This was the conclusion today of senators canvassing the situation to see whether impeachment would succeed in forcing Denby from the cabinet after President Coolidge last night in defiance of a senate resolution calling for Denby's resignation, said he would not now ask Denby to quit.

Final decision regarding impeachment proceedings will not be made however until further conferences.

While Denby's critics were considering this step, the senate Teapot Dome committee got evidence connecting Silas H. Strawn, Chicago, one of President Coolidge's special counsel to prosecute the oil leasing cases, with a Standard Oil bank. Strawn told committee members last night in executive session, it was learned, he was a director of the First National bank of Chicago.

Edward E. Brown, vice-president of the bank, told the committee today his bank handled finances of the Standard Oil company of Indiana and was in Chicago known as the "Standard Oil bank."

Brown's testimony came while the committee was trying to establish son's connection between Albert B. Fall, the Standard Oil company and the sale in May, 1922, of the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Journal. The deal involved $200,000 and was financed through the Chicago bank.

Only Life Portrait of Lincoln

The accompanying portrait by Colonel Freeman Thorp, who was well known in Brainerd, is the only known portrait of Abraham Lincoln drawn entirely from life. There is no photograph or painting that is like it in position, outline or expression.

Writing from his summer home at Hubert, Minn., shortly before his death, Col. Thorp said: "I have devoted myself to the study and practice of portraiture as a life work for the main purpose of giving to the world a correct portrait of Lincoln as he looked to those who knew him well and when he was president and was meeting with such complete fitness, the great responsibility that revolved upon him.

"I was, as a boy an expert with the pencil. I studied and sketched Lincoln from life at Geneva, Ohio, where on his way to Washington to be inaugurated, he stopped February 15th, 1861, to enable me to do this while he was meeting the people there and while he made them a brief little speech, with his face lit up with pleased animation, and the inherent human kindness characteristic of his life. After that I was a volunteer cavalry soldier in the Civil war. I went to Washington on a furlough to study Lincoln; also studied and sketched him at Gettysburg when and while he made his famous address. I knew and talked with Lincoln, briefly of course. He never saw the Gettysburg sketch, nor any of the other hasty sketches I made, but saw and approved the Geneva sketch and said that if a portrait of him was to be perpetuated he hoped it would not have the long-drawn down face and sorrowful look that photographs usually gave him. After the Civil war I was requested by leading senators to come to Washington, where I was told by senators and prominent representatives who had been closely associated with Lincoln, that there was no portrait or photograph of him that represented him as they knew him, and after seeing my sketches of him they decided that with my correct sketches and vivid impression of him from actual study from life, I could paint a correct portrait of him when I should have acquired the necessary skill in the technique of painting.

"To enable me to do this and thereby secure for all time a portrait of Lincoln as he actually looked in the performance of his great work, they had a studio built expressly for me on the roof of the senate wing of the Capitol, fifty years ago, admitted me to the floor of the house and senate for 20 years to get from those who knew Lincoln intimately their impressions of him, and gave me every possible facility for the study of his work, his character, his individuality, utterances and writings and all the pictures of him that have ever been made.

"My portrait of him was purchased by unanimous vote of the senate and hangs in the corridor of the senate with the portraits of Washington, Jefferson and other presidents, the only portrait of Lincoln the government ever would, ever did and probably ever will buy."

WIFE OF CANDLER IN ATLANTA COURT; ORDEAL POSTPONED

RAID ON APARTMENT IN FASHIONABLE RESIDENCE SECTION SATURDAY

POLICE ARREST MILLIONAIRE'S BRIDE AND TWO BUSINESS MEN

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Asa G. Candler, pretty young wife of the 73-year-old Coca Cola king, went to police court to defend her reputation and save her home today.

But the ordeal was postponed indefinitely when the city asked a continuance because of the illness of Chief of Police Beavers who in a raid on an apartment in a fashionable residential section Saturday, arrested the multimillionaire's bride and W. J. Stoddard and W. J. Keeling, prominent business men.

The three were charged with violating a city ordinance defining a disorderly house and Chief Beavers declaring he found a bottle of whiskey on a table in the room and who said other charges would be brought.

Attorneys for Stoddard and Mrs. Candler objected to the postponement.

"The citizens have some rights," Attorney Ben Conyers told the court. "We were told to be here at 9:30 and we are here and we want a trial now."

MORE MYSTERY IS INJECTED INTO THE MURDER OF WOMAN

(By United Press)
Aurora, Ill., Feb. 12.—More mystery was injected into the murder of Mrs. Warren J. Lincoln and her brother, Byron Shoup, with the arrest of John Lincoln, 21, son of the slain woman. The boy's father is already under arrest for the crime.

Chief of Police Michels is keeping the boy incommunicado in the jail here and refuses to tell on what evidence he made the second arrest. One of the theories advanced is that the father, who has confessed to the double slaying, has been trying to shield his son.

The murder occurred more than a year ago. A few months ago Warren Lincoln was arrested after confessing to the crime.

"Millionaires and paupers all look alike in a recorder's court," Judge Johnson told the defendants.

"We must have all interested parties present."

Society, anxious for a new thrill, turned out for the event, hoping to hear another chapter of the romantic life of Atlanta's lothario, Candler.

The jeweled matrons and their debutante daughter rubbed elbows with the lowly loafers to get a glimpse of the wife of Atlanta's richest citizen who came into court.

The aristocratic were accorded a special privilege of select seats in front of the Judge's bench with a railing separating them from the unkempt and the raffish who gathered in equally large numbers in the spectators' section.

ENGLISH PARLIAMENT RE-ASSEMBLED AFTER CHANGE OF MINISTRY

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 12.—Parliament re-assembled today after the change of ministry and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and his followers took over the "government side" of the house for the first time in British labor's history.

The liberals took a seat in a lower row of the government side. Members began assembling early to get a good seat. Viscount Curzon was the first seated. MacDonald was scheduled to speak at 3:30 p. m. Loud cheers greeted his arrival.

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 12.—Premier MacDonald announced in the house of commons today that one of the first international proposals in the new labor government will be a world conference on re-construction.

In response to a question, the premier said that details of a memorial appealing for such a conference were now being discussed by the cabinet and "I am glad to report that the prospects are bright."

Replying to another question, MacDonald expressed hope that the Anglo-French negotiations in regard to the separatist movement of Germany would soon be satisfactorily concluded.

Commons was crowded when the labor minister began handling routine questions.

Among interesting disclosures by MacDonald was that the government would save the salary of 5,000 pounds sterling paid to the foreign secretary as long as he combined his portfolio with the premiership as now.

CALL FOR CONVENTION FARMER, LABOR, SOCIALISTS AND OTHERS

(By United Press)
St. Louis, Feb. 12.—Call for a convention of farmer labor socialists and affiliated parties together with the representatives of the 16 big brotherhoods, was issued today by the conference for progressive political action.

The conference is to be held in Cleveland July 4th after both major party conventions have selected presidential candidates and will be for the purpose of discussing the merits of the presidential nominees.

The nomination providing for the call prepared by the committee on organization of which E. H. Kruse, personal representative of Warren Stone, president of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, is chairman, was adopted by a viva voce vote over the protest of a handful of communists.

Speeches from the floor and several amendments purporting to have the convention held at Minneapolis May 20 in connection with the meeting of the federated farmer-labor force which is said to be affiliated with the communists, failed.

T. R. Sullivan, delegate of the central trades and labor council of O'Fallon, Illinois, and R. B. Kramer, delegate of the Minneapolis trades and labor assembly lead the communist move.

Attempts to have the call for the conventions read that the purpose was "to select a candidate" also failed.

Morris Hillquist, outstanding New York socialist, made the second speech, declaring "America is ready to follow labor's leader in England and turn the government to the producers instead of the exploiters of wealth."

The name of William G. McAdoo, long considered a brotherhood favorite for the presidency, was not mentioned on the floor. William Johnson, president of the international machinists' union, presided over the session.

ANTI-BOOZE MEN LAY ASIDE THEIR SHOOTING IRONS

GLENN YOUNG CLAIMS EVERY ONE OF HIS RAIDS UNDER DEPUTIZATION

HAD EITHER FEDERAL OR STATE WARRANT TO MAKE SUCH INCURSIONS, HE SAID

(By United Press)
Marion, Ill., Feb. 13.—Glenn Young and his Ku Klux Klansmen anti-booze crusaders have laid aside their revolvers and machine guns.

Major General Milton Foreman in charge of 1,800 militia men here has no right to order everyone disarmed in the absence of martial law "but we are doing it just to co-operate," the dictator of "bloody Williamson county" said today.

The man who waged relentless war against bootleggers and moonshine in the county, in an interview with the United Press today showed his two holsters empty of the automatics that have been his constant companions for four months.

In his home, Young, a small, heavy browed, thick set, middle aged man of deadly earnestness, declared that Williamson county had been the bootleggers' source of liquor for two years before he came there.

Several freight car loads of liquor have been shipped out of Herrin and Johnston City to parties in the state, Young said.

For the $5,000 salary the klan has paid him so far, Young has 500 cases charging violation of the Volstead law to come before the next term of federal court in Danville.

"We have gotten the evidence too," Young remarked.

The present situation, Young said, was precipitated by the absence of a real sheriff's force. "It is just as if there were no sheriffs," he said.

"After the troops are recalled everything will be hunky dory if we get a real sheriff," Young said. "We have about three eye witnesses to the murder of Constable Caesar Cagle in Herrin last Friday night and we are not going to produce them until the grand jury meets." Every one of his raids, Young said, has been under federal or state deputization.

"How were the raids organized?" "That's an old story," Young replied. "We just assembled volunteer deputies at a central point with previous knowledge of the places, and came down on them in force."

"When are you going to leave Williamson county? When will the excitement be over?" he was asked.

"Marion is my home; I am going to stay here. Williamson county will be all right as soon as we get a real government in the hands of decent people."

YOUNG FORMERLY IN PROHIBITION SERVICE

Washington, Feb. 12.—S. Glenn Young, self-styled dictator of "bloody Williamson county" was dismissed from the prohibition enforcement service in December, 1920, "for acts unbecoming an officer," records of prohibition headquarters disclosed today.

Young was a prohibition officer from January to December, 1920. He was attached to the supervising prohibition agent's office for the central department, including Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

Young, the records show, is a native of North Carolina. Officials here would not reveal what acts caused Young's dismissal from service. He never served in Washington, but had headquarters in Chicago.

BALDWIN RE-ELECTED CONSERVATIVE LEADER

London, Feb. 12.—Stanley Baldwin was unanimously re-elected leader of the conservative party.

YOUNG ABDICATES DICTATORSHIP OF "BLOODY HERRIN"

(By United Press)
Herrin, Feb. 15.—F. Glenn Young abdicated from the dictatorship of "Bloody Herrin" today and civil authorities, backed by the bayonets of 1,800 soldiers, are again in power.

On Saturday Young, the rough-and-ready gun-toting booze raider declared himself ruler of Herrin, taking the place of the chief of police.

Major General Foreman, in command of the state militia, ended the dictatorship and declared the regularly constituted civil authorities back in power.

Foreman in a public proclamation announced the civil authorities of the county would be allowed to continue, but that the troops would remain to assist them.

GRIFFIS SAYS HE WAS DEPORTED, NOT PARDONED

New York, Feb. 12.—Corliss Hooven Griffith, who won fame through attempting to kidnap Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire slacker, now a fugitive in Germany, returned home yesterday aboard the liner Albert Ballin.

He was given a hero's welcome, which is to be added to with a banquet Wednesday night in Chicago, and climaxed with a great home coming celebration in Hamilton, Ohio, Thursday.

An official committee, named by the mayor of New York, met the Albert Ballin upon its arrival. Griffith was "excused" of attempting to kidnap Bergdoll and sentenced to 21 months in a Baden jail. His release was effected a few weeks later.

In telling of his experiences in Germany, Griffith declared the Germans postponed his trial in order to keep him "locked up as long as they could, knowing that soon after he was sentenced he would be released on demand of the American government."

"I never was sent to the penitentiary," he said, "but kept in the Mossbach jail. The food was bad. The $500 I had on me when arrested was not returned to me. When I was freed—and I was ordered deported, not pardoned—they put me on the boat without a penny and the only clothes I had were those given me by friends."

Griffith said he failed to kidnap Bergdoll, because American patriotism runs higher with the draft dodger free than it would with him in jail.

Griffith said he might have gone crazy in the German prison had it not been for the sustaining knowledge that 100,000,000 folks back home were behind him.

STANDARDIZING NUTS AND BOLTS FOR THE FARMER

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 12.—Relief for the farmer at last.

While legislators wrangle over farm penances the department of commerce has taken definite action. It has called a conference here on Feb. 19 to discuss standardization of nuts and bolts used on farm implements and machinery.

"To help the farmers," it says.

CHARGES OIL COMBINE USING SAME POLICY AS HIGHWAY ROBBERY

(By United Press)
Pierre, S. D., Feb. 12.—"The American people will destroy Standard Oil and capitalize the oil industry" unless "the oil combine ceases to practice highway robbery," Governor McMaster declared today in a telegram to Governor Bryan of Nebraska.

"Never in the history of the country has the oil combine so flagrantly and defiantly set out upon a policy of highway robbery," he declared.

OBREGON SAYS IT WAS DONE, REBELS LOSING 3,000 MEN

ELEVEN HOURS BLOODY FIGHT— ING OCCURRED AT OCT- LAN

ENEMY HAD BUILT MODERN ENTRENCHMENTS CAREFULLY CAMOUFLAGED

(By United Press)
Mexico City, Feb. 12.—"We broke the backbone of the revolutionary forces at Octlan," General Obregon wired the United Press here today from the front.

"The rebels lost 3,000 in casualties in the 11 hours fighting and already have been forced to evacuate Guadalupe in addition to Vera Cruz. With a graphic description of the Octlan battle, Obregon described it as a strenuous combat unprecedented in any experience. "It stands alone in Mexican history."

Describing the battle itself, Obregon wired:

"The enemy had built modern entrenchments carefully camouflaged and it was only with the greatest difficulty that our airplane scouts ferreted out their positions."

"In spite of this after a heavy bombardment our loyal Indian troops—for whom I have only the greatest praise—crossed the Lerma river under a terrific fire from machine guns and rifles."

"For eleven hours the battle raged. The enemy lost 3,000 casualties to perhaps 350 on our side, although it is impossible yet to make an accurate estimate."

"The final split of rebel action will come not later than a few days. This rebellion will end revolution in Mexico."

CHARGED WITH HONEYMOONING ILLEGALLY

(By United Press)
Kansas City, Feb. 12.—A warrant for the arrest of Claude Bossie, formerly city clerk of Omaha, on charges of illegal honeymooning with Ruth Wamsley of Kansas City, was issued by federal attorneys here today.

The couple is expected to arrive in New York today from a love pilgrimage in Europe. The warrants were sworn to by Mrs. Bossie, his first wife, who claimed the former clerk transported Miss Wamsley from Kansas City to New York. Bossie and the Kansas City woman claim they were married in Lawrence, Kansas, December 12. About this time they left Kansas City and sailed for Europe.

Bossie said he was going to Italy to claim an estate he had inherited.

Albany, Ore., Feb. 12.—Horst Ruehling, age 2, died yesterday of botulism poisoning. He was the 12th and last of a family group of 12 to die here as a result of eating home preserved beans eight days ago.

State and federal authorities have announced they will investigate the case.

The boy's body is being held until Dr. J. C. Geiger, Chicago, of the United States public health service, arrives. He is an expert in the study of botulism.

Washington, Feb. 12.—S. Glenn Young, self-styled dictator of "bloody Williamson county" was dismissed from the prohibition enforcement service in December, 1920, "for acts unbecoming an officer," records of prohibition headquarters disclosed today.

Young was a prohibition officer from January to December, 1920. He was attached to the supervising prohibition agent's office for the central department, including Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

Young, the records show, is a native of North Carolina. Officials here would not reveal what acts caused Young's dismissal from service. He never served in Washington, but had headquarters in Chicago.

YOUNG ABDICATES DICTATORSHIP OF "BLOODY HERRIN"

(By United Press)

Herrin, Feb. 13.—F. Glenn Young abdicated from the dictatorship of "Bloody Herrin" today and civil authorities, backed by the bayonets of 1,800 soldiers, are again in power.

On Saturday Young, the rough-and-ready gun-toting booze raider declared himself ruler of Herrin, taking the place of the chief of police.

Major General Foreman, in command of the state militia, ended the dictatorship and declared the regularly constituted civil authorities back in power.

Foreman in a public proclamation announced the civil authorities of the county would be allowed to continue, but that the troops would remain to assist them.

GRIFFIS SAYS HE WAS DEPORTED, NOT PARDONED

New York, Feb. 12.—Corliss Hooven Griffith, who won fame through attempting to kidnap Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire slacker, now a fugitive in Germany, returned home yesterday aboard the liner Albert Ballin.

He was given a hero's welcome, which is to be added to with a banquet Wednesday night in Chicago, and climaxed with a great home coming celebration in Hamilton, Ohio, Thursday.

An official committee, named by the mayor of New York, met the Albert Ballin upon its arrival. Griffith was convicted of attempting to kidnap Bergdoll, and sentenced to 21 months in a Baden jail. His release was effected a few weeks later.

In telling of his experiences in Germany, Griffith declared the Germans postponed his trial in order to keep him locked up as long as they could, knowing that soon after he was sentenced he would be released on demand of the American government.

"I never was sent to the penitentiary," he said, "but kept in the Mossbach Jail. The food was bad. The $500 I had on me when arrested was not returned to me. When I was freed—and I was ordered deported, not pardoned—they put me on the boat without a penny and the only clothes I had were those given me by friends."

Griffith said he failed to kidnap Bergdoll, because American patriotism runs higher with the draft dodger free than it would with him in jail.

Griffith said he might have gone crazy in the German prison had it not been for the sustaining knowledge that 100,000,000 folks back home were behind him.

OBREGON SAYS IT WAS DONE, REBELS LOSING 3,000 MEN

ELEVEN HOURS BLOODY FIGHTING OCCURRED AT OCTLAN

ENEMY HAD BUILT MODERN ENTRENCHMENTS CAREFULLY CAMOUFLAGED

(By United Press)

Mexico City, Feb. 12.—"We broke the backbone of the revolutionary forces at Octlan," General Obregon wired the United Press here today from the front.

"The rebels lost 3,000 in casualties in the 11 hours fighting and already have been forced to evacuate Guadaluajara in addition to Vera Cruz.

With a graphic description of the Octlan battle, Obregon described it as a strenuous combat unprecedented in any experience. "It stands alone in Mexican history."

Describing the battle itself, Obregon wired:

"The enemy had built modern entrenchments carefully camouflaged and it was only with the greatest difficulty that our airplane scouts ferreted out their positions."

"In spite of this after a heavy bombardment our loyal Indian troops—for whom I have only the greatest praise—crossed the Lerma river under a terrific fire from machine guns and rifles.

"For eleven hours the battle raged. The enemy lost 3,000 casualties to perhaps 350 on our side, although it is impossible yet to make an accurate estimate.

"The final split of rebel action will come not later than a few days. This rebellion will end revolution in Mexico."

MINIATURE SCOUT CAMP

Achievements of Troops Shown, Decided Credit to the Boys

The Boy Scout exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. is causing much favorable comment by all who have viewed it, as it represents the advancement that the boys of the local troops have made in the past year.

On the one side of the exhibit room is shown in a graphic manner, the requirements which must be met in order that the boys may attain the ranks of tenderfoot, second and first class scouts. When he has reached the last classification he has received a liberal education along many practical lines, and opened additional avenues of learning.

At the rear of the room a miniature scout camp has been set up, with many pictures illustrating what the scouts learn in their summer camps. The balance of the room is given over to the exhibit of the achievements of the Brainerd troops and is a decided credit to the boys whose handiwork is represented.

This exhibit closes this evening, and those who have not taken advantage of viewing it, are urged to visit the Y. M. C. A. tonight.

The headline radio programs for the week, as broadcasted by the Twin City stations, will be the two Scout programs of Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

St. Paul Scouts, under the direction of Frank R. Neibel, St. Paul scout executive, will take the air for an hour and a half program on tomorrow night from station WLAG at 9:15 P. M.

Minneapolis Scouts, led by Chief Tonkavampus, will take the air for an hour and a half at 9:20 P. M. from station WBAH.

The Minneapolis program will be heard by the Brainerd Scouts through the courtesy of the Woodhead Motor Company and the Brainerd Electric Company, at the Woodhead Motor Company salesrooms.

All Brainerd Scouts are invited to be at the Woodhead salesrooms at 9 o'clock sharp.

The St. Paul program is to be a very fine one, and it is suggested that those who have radio sets in Brainerd invite their scout friends in to hear this program on tomorrow evening.

SOUPS

By Helen Harrington Downing

With the approach of the cold, frosty days of winter, we are all more or less inclined toward the piping hot dishes, and especially soups, fragrant and appetizing, served as a first course, or possibly heavier soups to form the main dish. This, with bread and butter, hot baking powder biscuits or cornbread, makes an excellent and nourishing meal for both children and grown-ups.

Soup, in most instances, is a very economical and wholesome food. An inexpensive and at the same time, a most palatable one may be made from bits of meat and vegetables combined with a stock saved from the preparation of some other food. Where all fresh meat and vegetables must be purchased just for the soup, of course, it is more expensive. This is especially true of the small families where the housewife is better able to regulate the amount of food to be bought and cooked for each meal, so that there are few left-overs. In this case, it is advisable to keep a few cans of some well known quality brand of commercial soup on the pantry shelves, as an emergency stock.

There are two classes of soups—milk and stock soups—and these include practically all kinds. Vegetables are combined with either milk or meat stock, or both. The many varieties of soup get their names from the different materials used in them, which give substance and flavor.

Some of the vegetables most commonly used in soups are, potatoes, young carrots, celery, ripe tomatoes, fine corn, parsley, barley, rice, macaroni, baby lima beans, Dutch cabbage, okra, onions and sweet red peppers.

For soup stocks, pieces of rough muscle and bone, such as shin, neck, ox-tails and calves' heads, are used. Smoked, salted, or very fat meat in any larger quantity is undesirable although sometimes a bit of ham or bacon is used for flavor.

The general rule for stock is to allow for every pound of meat and bone 1 quart cold water, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 peppercorns, 4 cloves, ¼ teaspoon mixed herbs, and 1 tablespoon of each vegetable cut fine.

For clear soups, the top should be skimmed as it cooks, however, where nutriment is the chief end, the stock should not be skimmed for this would mean removing a large part of the albumen and globulin of the meat. When the soup has been cooked sufficiently, it should be allowed to cool so that the fat will rise to the top and can be taken off. It is then ready to re-heat and serve.

For invalids, clear broths or consommés and tomato soups are preferred. For the heartier appetite, vegetable, meat and vegetable mixed, ox-tail and chicken soups are delicious.

Below are given some recipes selected to represent the various types of soup, and which may be further modified by the housewife to suit her needs.

Brown Soup Stock

4 pounds shin of beef
½ teaspoon peppercorns
½ bay leaf
4 teaspoons salt
6 cloves
½ cup each, turnip, carrot, onion and celery, diced 2 sprigs parsley.
4 quarts cold water.
Wipe beef. Cut lean meat into inch cubes. Brown one-third of meat in hot frying pan in the marrow from bone. Put remainder of meat and bone in soup kettle with water and let stand one-half hour. Add browned meat, the vegetables, and seasoning, and heat gradually. Cook slowly five or six hours, keeping just below the boiling point; strain and cool; remove fat.

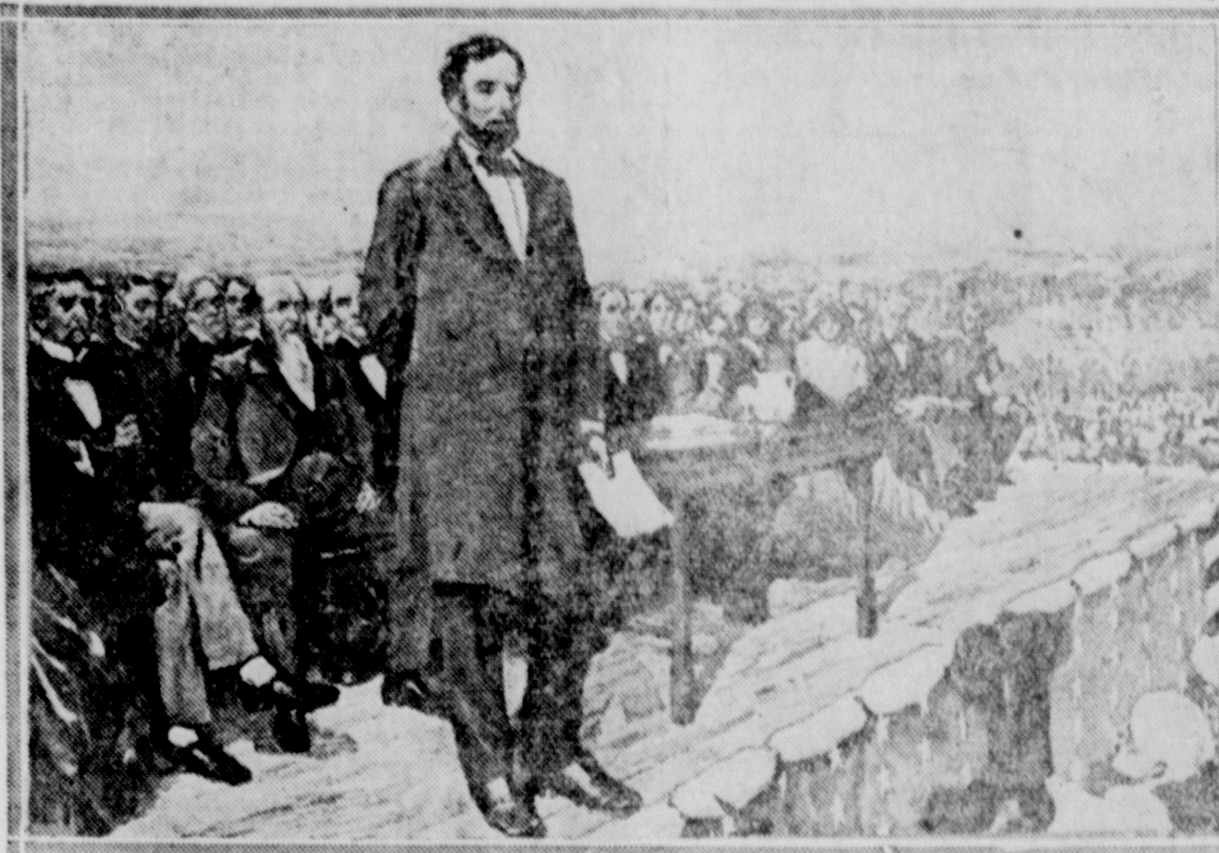

Vegetable Soup

1 quart stock
1 pint boiling water
½ carrot
½ potato
½ turnip
½ cup onion
½ cup peas
½ cup celery
½ cup tomato
1 tablespoon rice
Cut vegetables into uniform pieces or chop fine. Boil carrot and turnip celery, onions, and rice in water twenty minutes; add other vegetables and cook till tender. Add stock, and salt and pepper to taste. Boil ten minutes and serve.

Corn Soup

1 can corn
1 pint boiling water
1 pint milk
1 slice onion
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
Chop the corn, add water, and simmer twenty minutes; rub through a sieve. Scald milk with onion, and add milk to corn. Bind with butter and flour cooked together. Add salt and pepper. Serve with popped corn

Cream Soups

Cream soups are a combination of the white or cream sauce with vegetable pulp or white stock, or both. Being a little too heavy for dinner, they are very suitable for the main dish at luncheon.

Cream of Tomato Soup

½ can tomatoes
2 teaspoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 quart milk
1 slice onion
4 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ cup butter
Scald milk with onion, remove onion, and thicken milk with flour diluted with cold water until thin enough to pour, being careful that the mixture is free from lumps; cook twenty minutes, stirring constantly at first. Cook tomatoes with sugar fifteen minutes, add soda and rub through sieve; combine mixtures strain into twelve oven butter, salt and pepper.

SWEEPING CHANGES MADE AT LAKEHURST—McCRARY LOSES COMMAND

Washington, Feb. 12.—Sweeping changes in the personnel of officers at Lakehurst, N. J., air station and others assigned to the airship Shenandoah, including the relief of her commanding officer, Commander F. F. McCrary, have been made by Rear Admiral William A. Moffet, chief of the navy aeronautical bureau, and approved by Secretary Edwin Denby. Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne has been designated as commander of the Shenandoah.

Navy department officials made public the changes without comment, but it was indicated that they had been made with a view of eliminating such friction as has developed at Lakehurst and to place others in charge so they might familiarize themselves with the operations of the station and airship before the Shenandoah leaves for its Polar expedition.

Commander McCrary who has been in charge of the Lakehurst air station, also was ordered relieved from that command.

Commander J. H. Klein, an executive officer of the naval station at Lakehurst, will assume command of the Lakehurst station.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

FOURSCORE and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we can not dedicate, we can not consecrate, we can not hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract, the world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion, to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

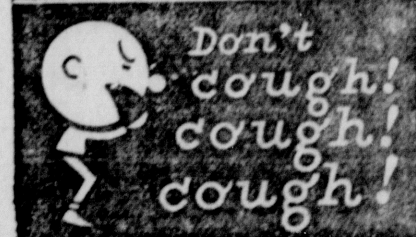

desire to have their newspapers placed before them at as early a moment as possible. This should keep both the city and rural population in closer and quicker touch with their several fields of activities."

Under the new system newspapers will be made up in separate sacks plainly labeled with the word "newspapers." If there are only a few copies of newspapers at the point of dispatch they will be placed in pouches with first class mail or in separate sacks, even though the sacks are only partly filled.

The order stipulates that newspapers shall not be mixed with parcels post at any point in their dispatch, from the publishers' offices until their delivery to the addressees.

The order applies alike to daily and weekly newspapers. It stipulates that all sacks of newspapers when received in postoffices must be segregated promptly and the contents distributed and dispatched to the proper stations for delivery by

MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

THE Minneapolis Symphony orchestra is carrying its music not alone to the largest cities of America, but is giving it to smaller cities too where its presence will serve to stir the musical culture and bring with it improvements in many things aesthetic.

Bemidji is one of the latest towns to engage the Symphony orchestra. Bemidji's Musical Art club is about to raise $2,000 as a guarantee. There will be two concerts, one in the afternoon for the school children and such adults as cannot attend during the evening and the other in the evening. March 13 is the date set. A feature of the forthcoming concert is the appearance of Bernard Ferguson as baritone soloist. The orchestra will have 65 members on this tour and the same program will be given in Bemidji as is being given in the much larger cities of the nation.

Admission prices for adults, at the afternoon concert will be $1.50. General admission at the evening concert is $1.50, with $2 for reserved seats. It is believed that these prices will permit the Musical Art club to just about break even on the financial end of this engagement since the club's earnest desire is not to make a great amount of money but to bring to Bemidji this most excellent musical organization for the benefit of this entire section of the state.

TAX EXEMPT SECURITIES

THE house has rejected the ban on tax exempt securities and partly ranks have been split in the vote on the proposed amendment. The defeat of the resolution will have no effect on the tax bill cut as reported.

Two days of debate were consumed. The resolution in formal language proposed a constitutional amendment to prohibit the issuance of tax exempt securities. It was favored by President Coolidge and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

The Dispatch has always favored placing the ban on these tax exempt securities. They came into prominence as a war measure to gain funds for the nation, and now that is over and reconstruction well under way and every dollar should do its duty and not hide under a smoke screen permitting huge fortunes to add to their holdings, permitting also an evasion of income tax payments and thus drawing from the channels of commerce money which would otherwise be serving in productive fields, advancing the cause of labor and finance.

MOVE LARGE FREIGHT TRAFFIC

THE recent report of the American Railway association to the present congress shows the railways in 1923 moved the largest freight traffic ever handled. It amounted to 40,545,920 carloads during the first 42 weeks of the year, and a corresponding quantity during the remaining 10 weeks. Car loadings for the first 42 weeks of previous years were: 34,320,426 in 1922; 31,910,168 in 1921.

Freight cars in 1923 carried an average of about 28.2 tons compared to 26.3 tons in 1922 and 27.8 tons in 1921. They traveled an average of 27.6 miles daily compared to 22.5 miles in 1922 and 22 miles a day in 1921. The railroads spent $1,547,048,000 in 1923 to provide adequate transportation, compared to $429,272, 836 in 1922. The cost of supplies increased largely over those bought in 1922. The association states the railroads are prepared to do their share in providing adequate transportation for the public.

BRAINERD BASKETBALL

HIGH school and other followers of the basketball sport will be pleased to read that the local team is advancing to the top of the percentage column. In recent gains recorded Brainerd high advanced from fifth to fourth place, and the percentage increased to 571.

St. Cloud so far has played but three games, and all being victories, has 1000 per cent to its credit. Staples has played nine games, the most of any team in the district. Brainerd is next with seven games. Then come Pine River, Little Falls, Crosby with six each; Bemidji with five, St. Cloud with three, and Cass Lake with two.

TWO NATIONS RECOGNIZE THE SOVIET

Two great nations of Europe have now recognized the Soviet government of Russia, these being England and Italy. England attached some reservations in the form of agreements to be made later regarding Russian propaganda, debts, etc. Italy seems to have made no such reservations. Anyway, it marks a step forward in the foreign affairs of the Russian soviet. Such recognition accorded will have an effect on the world at large and other nations are scanning every step made by Russia's foreign minister.

Recognition always implies obligations of some kind to nations concerned and to nations at large.

ROADS ARE GOOD

THE DISPATCH is pleased to print this reference to a road leading to Brainerd. On Wednesday, the day after the Milford mine disaster, Little Falls people motored to Brainerd and the range. The Transcript said this about the road:

"The road between Little Falls and Brainerd is in excellent condition at this time, according to Little Falls people who were at Crosby. In fact the entire road from Little Falls to Crosby is good."

"As proof of the condition of the road, Little Falls motorists returned from Brainerd Wednesday in one hour and twenty minutes and without dangerous driving."

Scout Anniversary Week Editorial

Scouting a Cure for Juvenile Delinquency

The critical age of a boy is from twelve to eighteen years of age, and these are the years he is eligible to become a Boy Scout. These years are called critical because it is during these years a boy is most subject to impression, the time of his hero-worship, the period of his life when the "Gang Spirit" prevails. If a boy can be controlled and properly directed during this period of his life we need have little worry about his future. The old theory to spare the rod and spoil the child does not seem to hold good in regard to the modern civilization. Implicit obedience and strong discipline is now giving way to companionship, good fellowship, persuasion and an influence of reason.

My experience in Juvenile Courts is limited and I am not as familiar with the workings of the Boy Scout movement as I wish I was, but I am satisfied that Scouting has done wonders for the boys of today and that many a boy would be in the Juvenile Court were it not for the beneficial influence of the Boy Scout movement. There is continually brought to my attention from the information I have from other Juvenile Courts and of the indorsement of the Scout movement by fraternal organizations and civic and religious bodies that this is a movement that commends itself to thoughtful men and women and is worthy of financial support.

During my experience as Judge in the Juvenile Court I have to my knowledge only one case where the minor charged was a member or in any way identified with the Boy Scout movement. In this case the juvenile charged had only signed the application. However, I am pleased to say that when the attention of the Scout officials was called to the matter, they promptly appeared in Court and volunteered to assume the guardianship of the alleged delinquent for a period of probation when it seemed the only thing left for the Court to do was to force a commitment. Up to the present time this minor is still on parole and I am receiving good reports of his conduct, so much so that I am encouraged to hope that actual commitment to a state institution will not be necessary.

This Scout movement is not limited to a few. It has vast possibilities.

All who are interested may do their part, and after all, when we have made our own little place in the busy, turmoil and strife of business life, what grander or nobler motive can we have and how refreshing it is to think that we have at least started one of our kind in the right path, if not our own brother's child. How good it is to think that we live in a world that is so thoughtful of the young and to know that if anything happens our boys will not be forgotten or neglected, and who is so wise that he can tell what is in store for him in the near future. Let us not forget the teachings of the good book when it says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me."

Claim "No Recommendation" Made by Civic and Commerce Tax Reduction Committee to the County Commissioners

An article appeared in the Dispatch of Friday February 8th that has created an erroneous impression in regard to the action of a certain committee that recently appeared before the county commissioners in regard to the employment of the county agent and county nurse and the committee feels that the parties interested should be informed of the actual facts inasmuch as the article referred to stated that the committee recommended to the commissioners that the services of the county agent and county nurse be dispensed with. No such recommendation was made.

A committee of five to be known as the tax reduction committee was appointed by the Civic & Commerce Association. The duties of this committee are to meet with the county and city officials to make suggestions, to consult and assist in devising ways and means for a reduction of taxes in this county.

This committee consists of A. M. Opsahl, R. R. Wise, C. D. Johnson, A. L. Hoffman, E. O. Webb and as this committee had been informed that certain farmers had made objections to and had also criticized the county commissioners on account of the employment of the county agent and county nurse, the committee felt that, the farmers being the ones principally interested, should have a right to express their wishes in regard to their further employment and as an election was to take place in the farming districts early in March, this committee met with the county commissioners and suggested that the farmers be given an opportunity to vote on the question as to whether they should be given the right to settle the matter for the future, as this committee is well satisfied that the members of the Civic & Commerce Association, the citizens of Brainerd and other towns and villages of the county are perfectly willing to have the services of the nurse and agent continued if the farmers desire.

A great many matters have been brought before this committee that will be taken up at the proper time, but the committee being criticized for their action taken in regard to the county nurse and county agent first, further wish to explain that if this matter had not been taken up with the county commissioners at their meeting Saturday, February 2nd, on account of the March election, it would have to lay over for another year.

This committee was not appointed to criticize any individual or official in particular but to assist and co-operate with the county and city officials to relieve in part, as far as possible, our heavy burden of taxation and this committee would welcome any suggestions from any citizen of our county along those lines and invite the co-operation of all taxpayers.

Respectfully,
The Committee of the Civic & Commerce Association on Tax Reduction.

Women the Greatest Buyers in the World

There are 22,000,000 homes in the United States. The women who buy for these homes spend in the average $500 each, or a total of $11,000,000,000, each year. That is more than $36,000,000 every working day. Every year it amounts to half as much as America's Liberty Bond issue.

Each woman is a part of this army of buyers, and each, if she will, may be guided to wise and economical purchases if she will but make up her mind each day to read as many as she can of the advertisements which manufacturers are printing for her benefit.

The advertising in every newspaper and every magazine is a buying guide for this greatest buying force in the world. This advertising makes it safe and easy for every member of this buying army to make her purchases.

It establishes in her mind a buying habit and gives her a preference of one brand of goods to another or an advertised article to one that is unknown.

It identifies for her a certain product as being standard, so that she may easily dodge the wiles of sellers who try to sell something that is not so good.

It fixes merit as an everlasting adjunct to certain articles.

It makes her know that the manufacturer who is proud of his product and jealous of his reputation and character cannot do otherwise than make his product at least as good as he says it is.

More than likely it is better.

Advertising points out where this greatest buyer in all the world's history may find quality goods by showing her pictures of them over and over again which enables her to recognize them easily and quickly.

MISS "AUSTIN HERALD" WINNER

Miss Ruth Anderson Winner of Grand Prize, Beauty Contest, at Auto Show

NONE BEGRUDGED HER HONOR

Other Girl Contestants Believed She Was Entitled to Judges' Award

Miss Ruth Anderson, as "Miss Austin Herald," was awarded the grand prize of $500 at the beauty show held in conjunction with the Twin City Automotive Exposition which closed on Saturday evening.

Miss Irene Turcotte, "Miss Brainerd Dispatch," returned Sunday from the auto show, and stated that all of the contestants were well satisfied with the decision of the judges, all believing that Miss Anderson was entitled to the honors accorded her.

The fifteen contestants were entertained royally during the show-week, said Miss Turcotte, and enjoyed a most delightful time while in the cities. The young ladies who represented the Minneapolis Tribune and the Minnesota Star, were especially courteous to the visiting contestants.

The judges who selected Miss Ruth Anderson and conferred upon her the title of "Miss Northwest," were Governor J. A. O. Preus, Mrs. J. E. Rounds, president of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, Caryl Spiller, director of the St. Paul Institute of Arts, Anthony Angarola, instructor in painting and drawing at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, and Mrs. H. E. Wilcox, wife of the manager of the auto show.

Miss Anderson was introduced to the thousands who thronged the Overland building during the closing hours of the automobile show, as "Miss Northwest," and was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets of flowers. She graciously consented to pass up and down the aisles of the building that all might honor her with their applause.

It is said that two ballots were required before the judges came to a unanimous decision on the winner of the contest. They met shortly before the style review began on Saturday evening. Each of the girls was given a number and they appeared individually before the judges. On the first ballot the judges were unable to agree on the winner, and the girls were compelled to appear a second time. On this ballot Miss Anderson was chosen the winner.

START TO SERVE AT 6:15 P. M.

Grand Spread is Put on Under the Direction of Chairman E. J. Quinn

The Civic and Commerce Association has a full program planned for Wednesday evening, its regular meeting night. The house and social committee will open the events of the evening with a fine turkey dinner at 6:15 o'clock.

This grand spread, put on under the direction of E. J. Quinn, chairman of the committee, and his assistants, will consist of the following, and there will be no increase over the regular charges that have prevailed in the past.

Menu

Roast Turkey
Sage dressing Cranberry sauce
Mashed potatoes Giblet gravy
Cabbage salad Parker house rolls
Ice cream Coffee

Following the dinner, will be a very important and interesting business meeting. A. M. Opsahl, who has been very active in his efforts to bring before the proper state and government officials the matter of maintaining the lake levels in the Brainerd district, will present this subject on Wednesday evening. It is understood that he has a good report to make on this matter.

President F. H. Gruenhagen will announce the personnel of the standing committees for the year. A great deal of time and effort has been put into the selection of those who are to serve on these committees, with the idea of getting just the right man in the right place.

W. J. Hall will speak on the subject "Upholding Home Trade," with the idea of inducing the merchants of the city to feature goods that are made in Brainerd, whenever it is possible for them to do so.

It is hoped that the committee which has the matter of planning the campaign of furnishing to the farmers pure-bred dairy sires, will have a report to make on Wednesday evening. This is to be one of the major activities of the association this year, and one destined to assist in building up the dairy industry in Crow Wing county.

OLD TIME DANCE GIVEN BY ELKS

Brainerd Elks lodge, No. 615, puts on an old fashioned dance with waltzes and two-steps and quadrilles and everything on Wednesday evening, February 13, at Elks hall. Invitations have been sent out by the house and social committee.

Dancing will start promptly at 9 o'clock and continue to midnight. A large attendance is expected. It will not be a formal affair, for in the old days nobody knew what a full dress suit was.

PART ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

Carl Peterson "Mayor," Merle Storm "City Clerk," Howard Nicholson "City Attorney"

As part of the Anniversary Week program arranged by the Crow Wing Council, the "Men of Tomorrow," who will be the future officials of the national, state and local governments, will have an opportunity of studying their "jobs" on Wednesday between the hours of 12 and 1 P. M.

At this time 15 uniformed scouts will take over the offices of the city and run them as they think will best serve the interests of the people.

The following scouts have been selected to fill the offices:

Mayor—Carl Peterson.
City Clerk—Merle Storm.
City Attorney—Howard Nicholson.
City Engineer—John Hohman.
Chief of Police—Eugene Nicholson.

Traffic Squad—Bobby Andersen, John Ellison, Dale Sanders.
Chief of Fire Department—Eugene Stimble, Jr.

President of Water & Light Board—John Chaddbourne.
Secretary of Water & Light Board—Ray Paine.

Health Officer—Guy Hawkins.
President of the Park Board—Elmer Peterson.

Judge of Municipal Court—Hans Pfock.

Judge of Juvenile Court—William Johnstone.

"Mayor" Carl Peterson, in a short interview—"His Honor" was in a hurry to get to school when the Dispatch reporter caught him—stated that he had not determined on the program he would outline to the "new" officials, but set forth the fact very clearly that "Youth Must Be Served," and that if the democracy of the country was to be saved to the future citizens it was high time that the present generation gave heed to the citizenship training and character building value of the Scout movement.

And as he leaped over the park fence for a short cut to school he said, "Drop into the office on Wednesday, and I may be able to give you a little more time."

We caught "Chief of Police" Nicholson while he was acting as chauffeur for his "dad" and had a minute interview with him, in which he said, "I have appointed three good 'men' to act as traffic squad, and they will be on duty during the 'rush' hour at the important downtown corners. They have been instructed that during my 'term in office' the traffic ordinances must be enforced without fear or favor, and to promptly hale before 'Judge' Pfock any and all offenders." Continuing the "Chief" said, "This cutting corners and knocking down the danger lights has simply got to be stopped, and these 'speed demons' who think they can race across the street intersection without slowing down are going to find that when they are brought before 'Judge' Pfock that he will not say, 'Two dollars and cost,' but 'ten dollars and ten days.'"

The rest of the "officials" were too busy getting ready to assume the great responsibility heaped upon their shoulders to give the reporter an interview, but all stated that they would have something worth while to say to the public as soon as they had been "sworn in," and the Dispatch will do its best to see them all on tomorrow.

NONE BEGRUDGED HER HONOR

Other Girl Contestants Believed She Was Entitled to Judges' Award

Miss Ruth Anderson, as "Miss Austin Herald," was awarded the grand prize of $500 at the beauty show held in conjunction with the Twin City Automotive Exposition which closed on Saturday evening.

Miss Irene Turcotte, "Miss Brainerd Dispatch," returned Sunday from the auto show, and stated that all of the contestants were well satisfied with the decision of the judges, all believing that Miss Anderson was entitled to the honors accorded her.

The fifteen contestants were entertained royally during the show-week, said Miss Turcotte, and enjoyed a most delightful time while in the cities. The young ladies who represented the Minneapolis Tribune and the Minnesota Star, were especially courteous to the visiting contestants.

The judges who selected Miss Ruth Anderson and conferred upon her the title of "Miss Northwest," were Governor J. A. O. Preus, Mrs. J. E. Rounds, president of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, Cary Spiller, director of the St. Paul Institute of Arts, Anthony Angarola, instructor in painting and drawing at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, and Mrs. H. E. Wilcox, wife of the manager of the auto show.

Miss Anderson was introduced to the thousands who thronged the Overland building during the closing hours of the automobile show, as "Miss Northwest," and was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets of flowers. She graciously consented to pass up and down the aisles of the building that all might honor her with their applause.

It is said that two ballots were required before the judges came to a unanimous decision on the winner of the contest. They met shortly before the style review began on Saturday evening. Each of the girls was given a number and they appeared individually before the judges. On the first ballot the judges were unable to agree on the winner, and the girls were compelled to appear a second time. On this ballot Miss Anderson was chosen the winner.

BERLENBACH MAY BE NEXT HEAVY CHAMP

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 12.—Jack Dempsey, in one of his syndicated articles, says that the fighter who wins the championship from him must do it with his left hand. He reasons that his left hand is his best, and he will remain champion until some challenger comes along with a faster landing punch.

Dempsey, it will be remembered, survived two of the greatest right hands in the business: The lightning-like thrust of Carpenter and the bludgeon-swing of the powerful Firpo.

It would seem then that the champion is right when he figures that he will have to be beaten by a left hand.

There is only one fighter coming up who shows a real left hand, and he is Paul Berlenbach, the latest light heavyweight sensation. He is the finest looking prospect to come out since Dempsey started knocking them dead six years ago.

Berlenbach is just a few pounds over the middleweight class. He is only twenty-two years of age and he will fill out as he goes along. The way he has come along since he left the amateur ranks makes it seem that he may be the one who is to give Dempsey the real test.

Berlenbach has won 23 consecutive knockout victories and, in his first real test against Frank Carbone, he stopped a fighter who had never been knocked out before.

Berlenbach started out to be a wrestler. He is built ponderously about the neck and shoulders and he has a most powerful pair of arms. He seems to be a little bit muscle bound, but Dan Hickey, his trainer and instructor, feels sure that he can be loosened up.

Hughie McQuillan, one of the pitchers for the New York Giants, was the one who really got Berlenbach into boxing. He had tired of the amateur wrestling game, and one night McQuillan asked him to put on the gloves in a little amateur tournament that was being held in their club at Astoria.

Berlenbach consented, and he knocked out nearly every one in the club. He took a liking to the gloves and decided to try the game. In his first bout in Jersey he was knocked kicking, but he was not discouraged, and he finally consented to place himself in the hands of Dan Hickey, boxing instructor at the New York Athletic Club.

Hickey has done wonders with him, and it is improbable that he will make any mistakes in bringing him along. He is being built slowly and well, and in another year he ought to be the light heavyweight champion. There aren't many of the top-notch light heavyweights now who could stand up under his murderous left hand.

Jack Dempsey 'Caught' In Cabaret Raid; Found Drinking Ginger Ale

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—While Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, was visiting his old friend, Pete Herman, one time world's champion bantamweight, at a cabaret and restaurant said to be owned by Herman, O. D. Jackson, federal prohibition director for Louisiana, sent eight of his picked men to raid the place.

In honor of Dempsey, members of the squared circle in New Orleans rallied to the cabaret in great numbers. Tables were at a premium. Goolly, the federal agents began their search. Not even the champion's table was overlooked. One of the agents lifted Dempsey's glass, sniffed at its contents and pronounced it ginger ale.

Dempsey took the raid calmly, treating it as a great joke.

The agents reported they found a pitcher containing whisky in the kitchen of the cabaret. Mr. Jackson said he would determine today against whom charges are to be made.

COMMISSION O. K.'S SKIRMISH BETWEEN FIRPO AND LODGE

Buenos Aires, Feb. 12.—The municipal boxing commission, at its meeting held last night definitely authorized the holding of the fight between Luis Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight, and "Farmer" Lodge, next Saturday.

A report was circulated last week that the bout would be called off as the Minnesota heavyweight was not in condition and not a worthy rival for the South American.

China May Send Tennis Stars in Davis Cup Bid

New York, Feb. 12.—China may appear in the role of a Davis cup challenger for 1924. It was revealed by the United States Lawn Tennis association.

In response to requests from Chinese athletic authorities, the association has forwarded detailed information about international team championship competition and challenging procedure.

No assurances of competition this year in the cup contest were given, but the source of inquiry pointed out that China has a number of good tennis players available should a team be entered.

AT FORT SNELLING TRAPS SUNDAY

St. Paul, Feb. 12.—H. W. Maginnis won two events at the weekly shoot of the Twin City Trapshooting association at the Fort Snelling traps. YALE CAPTURES MANY HONORS DURING 1923

Comes Back to Own After Several Lean Years.

The success of the athletic program at Yale was the big feature in college sports for 1923. The victory of the Yale football team over all of its opponents, including Harvard, brought to an end one of the most successful seasons in the history of the New Haven institution.

virtue of its victory over Columbia, can lay claim to the rowing title of the East.

In the competition between the members of the "Big Three" fraternity, the Elis have won everything with the exception of water polo and hockey. Princeton captured the water polo title and Harvard the hockey championship. A goal by George Owen, after two extra periods of play had been ordered, was responsible for Yale's defeat on the ice.

At the close of 1922 Yale had a poor football year and finished last in the Eastern Basketball league. Its crew had only been able to win from Harvard.

In 1923 Tad Jones got his football system working properly and gave a former assistant at Pennsylvania, in his first season at New Haven, produced a championship basketball team from mediocre material. Ed Lender, fresh from his triumphs on the Pacific coast with the University of Washington squads, developed an eight which won from Columbia, Cornell, Harvard, Princeton and Pennsylvania.

Yale is still supreme in swimming. Bob Kiputh's team won with ease from Princeton, Brown and the Navy, Yale's only serious rivals in the tank.

Final Showings Today of "Big Brother"

The final showings of the Paramount production of "Big Brother," will take place at the Lyceum this afternoon and evening. It is an exceptionally appealing and human tale a picturization of the immensely popular story by Rex Beach. Tom Moore, Raymond Hatton and Edith Roberts and Mickey Bennett are featured in the principal roles. Allan Dwan supervised the production. Tonight is "Rotarian" "Big Brother" night.

Auto Race Scene in "Racing Hearts" Thrilling

Perhaps one-tenth of the dangers encountered in motion picture production reach and are appreciated by the fans who see the finished photograph.

No greater example of this truth exists than "Racing Hearts," a Paramount picture starring Agnes Ayres which is due at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Time after time during the filming of the big automobile racing scenes dangerous skids, near-accidents took place while the hurtling cars roared around the track. But many of these were entirely out of the sight of the camera eye.

BERLENBACH MAY BE NEXT HEAVY CHAMP

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 12.—Jack Dempsey, in one of his syndicated articles, says that the fighter who wins the championship from him must do it with his left hand. He reasons that his left hand is his best, and he will remain champion until some challenger comes along with a faster landing punch.

Dempsey, it will be remembered, survived two of the greatest right hands in the business: The lightning-like thrust of Carpentier and the bludgeoning of the powerful Firpo.

It would seem then that the champion is right when he figures that he will have to be beaten by a left hand.

There is only one fighter coming up who shows a real left hand, and he is Paul Berlenbach, the latest light heavyweight sensation. He is the finest looking prospect to come out since Dempsey started knocking them dead six years ago.

Berlenbach is just a few pounds over the middleweight class. He is only twenty-two years of age and he will fill out as he goes along. The way he has come along since he left the amateur ranks makes it seem that he may be the one who is to give Dempsey the real test.

Berlenbach has won 23 consecutive knockout victories and, in his first real test against Frank Carbone, he stopped a fighter who had never been knocked out before.

Berlenbach started out to be a wrestler. He is built ponderously about the neck and shoulders and he has a most powerful pair of arms. He seems to be a little bit muscle bound, but Dan Hickey, his trainer and instructor, feels sure that he can be loosened up.

Hughie McQuillan, one of the pitchers for the New York Giants, was the one who really got Berlenbach into boxing. He had tired of the amateur wrestling game, and one night McQuillan asked him to put on the gloves in a little amateur tournament that was being held in their club at Astoria.

Berlenbach consented, and he knocked out nearly every one in the club. He took a liking to the gloves and decided to try the game. In his first bout in Jersey he was knocked kicking, but he was not discouraged, and he finally consented to place himself in the hands of Dan Hickey, boxing instructor at the New York Athletic Club.

Hickey has done wonders with him, and it is improbable that he will make any mistakes in bringing him along. He is being built slowly and well, and in another year he ought to be the light heavyweight champion. There aren't many of the top-notch light heavyweights now who could stand up under his murderous left hand.

Jack Dempsey 'Caught' In Cabaret Raid; Found Drinking Ginger Ale

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—While Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, was visiting his old friend, Pete Herman, one time world's champion bantamweight, at a cabaret and restaurant said to be owned by Herman, O. D. Jackson, federal prohibition director for Louisiana, sent eight of his picked men to raid the place.

In honor of Dempsey, members of the squared circle in New Orleans rallied to the cabaret in great numbers. Tables were at a premium.

Coolly, the federal agents began their search. Not even the champion's table was overlooked. One of the agents lifted Dempsey's glass, sniffed at its contents and pronounced it ginger ale.

Dempsey took the raid calmly, treating it as a great joke.

The agents reported they found a pitcher containing whisky in the kitchen of the cabaret. Mr. Jackson said he would determine today against whom charges are to be made.

COMMISSION O. K.'S SKIRMISH BETWEEN FIRPO AND LODGE

Buenos Aires, Feb. 12.—The municipal boxing commission, at its meeting held last night definitely authorized the holding of the fight between Luis Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight, and "Farmer" Lodge, next Saturday.

A report was circulated last week that the bout would be called off as the Minnesota heavyweight was not in condition and not a worthy rival for the South American.

China May Send Tennis Stars in Davis Cup Bid

New York, Feb. 12.—China may appear in the role of a Davis cup challenger for 1924, it was revealed by the United States Lawn Tennis association.

In response to requests from Chinese athletic authorities, the association has forwarded detailed information about international team championship competition and challenging procedure.

No assurances of competition this year in the cup contest were given, but the source of inquiry pointed out that China has a number of good tennis players available should a team be entered.
